SUMMIT
Where the best come to learn

Counseling with CHOICE Theory:

Advanced Skill Building Workshop
with Dr. William Glasser

CHOICE Theory:
The New
'Reality Therapy'
Tempe Arizona

OCTOBER
18th
2007

DON'T MISS OUT

In this workshop, Dr. Glasser will demonstrate how to put his popular theories into practice:

- Explore how Choice Theory can help your students' take responsibility for their actions
- Discuss the relationship between disconnectedness and behavioral problems
- Role-play scenarios you face every day
- Strengthen your arsenal of counseling techniques

"By giving up many current practices teachers have been using since they began to teach, Dr. Glasser explains in detail how any teacher can build competence and eliminate both failure and discipline problems."

— Jack Jenkins, Ed.D., Professor, College of Education, University of Florida
